

WARREN A. "Hap" CANON

WARREN ATKINSON "Hap" CANON, 68, died at his home in Bradford County near Keystone Heights on Wed., Dec. 10, 2008, after a 30 month bout with cancer. He was born in Chicago on July 21, 1940, the son of the late Robert A. Canon and Elizabeth H. Murphy. He grew up in South Florida, graduating from South Broward H.S. in Hollywood in 1958. He served in the Army 1959-62. and earned a B.S. from FSU in 1976. As an adult, Hap lived in several Florida locals: Ft. Myer, Key West, Tampa, Tallahassee, Hollywood, and moved to Keystone in 1998. He was a newspaper reporter for a couple of decades, a carpenter for some years and before retirement was a merchant seaman out of Port Everglades.

He is survived by his older brother, Bradley (Rose) Canon of Lexington, KY and was predeceased by a younger sister, Elizabeth "Betsy" Canon. Also surviving are two nieces, Karen Canon of Albuquerque, NM, Laura Canon of Henderson, NM, and a nephew, Gavin Canon of Lexington, KY.

Hap was an easy going free spirit and made friends easily. He had many of them in the Keystone area as well as in other places he had lived. They will miss him. A memorial event is planned for some time in January. Memorial contributions maybe made to Haven Hospice, 6400 St. Johns Ave., Palatka., FL. JONES-GALLAGHER FUNERAL HOME, KEYSTONE HEIGHTS is in charge of arrangements.
