

Niel Kalis, Esq. sent the following obituary of Susan Rose Doctors nee Kalis to Steve Greenberg. The picture is from Susan's Google profile.

Susan was born in Boston, Mass on January 5, 1941 and died on November 24, 2021 in Evanston, Ill where she had lived as a single mom since 1969.

She is survived by her children, Eric Doctors of Tampa, Fl., and Rachel Doctors of Springfield, Ill., her grandchild, Holling Kniffin and her brother Neal Kalis of Fort Lauderdale, Fl.

After graduating from South Broward High School in 1958, Susan attended 1 year of college at the University of Miami before moving to Sherman Oaks, California in 1960. In the next few years Susan moved with her young family to Largo Florida, then to Hackensack New Jersey, then to Cambridge Mass and finally settling in Evanston. Susan was a graduate of Simmons College and obtained a master's degree from the Kellogg business school at Northwestern University. Susan was a vice president of Human Resources for Official Airlines Guide("OAG") and after retiring did private consulting as a business and management coach. She was the penultimate community volunteer/leader. She was involved in botanical garden groups, museums, Evanston and North Shore Village Civic groups and many others. Susan was adored by her family and friends.

Susan was predeceased by her mom, Jane Kalis who passed away in 1975 and her father, Aaron Kalis who passed away in 1977.