

CARYL LYN HUNTER

HUNTER, CARYL LYN, died of cancer Tuesday, September 7, 2010 at her home in Hollywood Oaks surrounded by her loving family. Born in Miami on September 15, 1940 to Walter & Lillian Ramberg, she graduated from South Broward High School in 1958 and worked at Metropolitan Life, where she met her husband, Fred Hunter II. In 1964, she married Fred, who died in 2003. She is survived by her two sons Rick (Dede) and Brad (Stacey) and six grandchildren Elisabeth, Ben, Michael, Luke, Abby, and Levi, and by her sisters Lynn Schwartz and Dawn Baxter. She, her husband, and their family owned and operated the Fred Hunter Funeral Homes, growing the caring, compassionate firm to become one of the largest family firms of its kind in the country. She was well known for her selfless devotion to her family and friends, her love of God, and her service in the church - - - St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, where she sang in the choir for over 25 years. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to Sheridan House Family Ministries (www.sheridanhouse.org) and Hope Women's Center (www.thereishope.org)

Visitation Friday, September 10, 6-8pm; Funeral Service Saturday, September 11, 10:30am both at St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, 500 N. Park Rd., Hollywood, FL 33021. (ph) 954-989-2655. Arrangements by Fred Hunter Funeral Homes, (ph) 954-989-1550. www.fredhunters.com View this Guest Book at www.MiamiHerald.com/obituaries.

Published in The Miami Herald on September 9, 2010